Phil Lowe is a master craftsman and furniture maker and is the author of many Fine Woodworking articles and is a long time contributing editor. His teaching experience includes ten years at Boston's North Bennett Street School, including five years as head of the furniture-making department. Since 1985, Phil has operated a furniture making and restoration shop in Beverly, MA, producing work for the private sector and museums throughout North America. In 1997 Phil started The Furniture Institute of Massachusetts which offers hands-on classes in all facets of traditional furniture making. Phil has been a visiting instructor and demonstrator at various schools and woodworking organizations throughout the United States and Canada. In 2005, he received the coveted Cartouche Award from the Society of American Period Furniture Makers. For more information about Phil or about the Furniture Institute of Massachusetts, please visit his web site at <http://www.furnituremakingclasses.com>
