From the President...

At our last board meeting we discussed our association mentor program. Woodworking instruction, learning new techniques and improving skills have always been among the most highly valued aspects of SDFWA membership. Meeting these expectations is a high priority for the board. But organizing and conducting high quality mentoring events is a challenge due to the time required for competing association projects, the fast pace of life, demands of work and family and the limited size of most of our personal shops. We are seeking ways to improve our mentor program. For example, decentralizing mentor activities by arranging more frequent, less formal regional events where members who live in specific San Diego areas can get together to share information and knowledge. Or by getting access to a well equipped shop big enough to accommodate a large group for regularly scheduled, more structured mentoring sessions.

The success of these initiatives will depend on members with the necessary skills and teaching ability to come forward and volunteer to lead mentoring events. A small group has already done so. Let me know if you have a specific mentoring request and I will try to connect you with one of these members. Most important, let me know if you can help to support the mentor program by volunteering to lead an event yourself.

Member highlights this month go to Don Spangler and Doug Murphy. Don is familiar to all members who have benefited over the years from his hard work providing beverages and snacks at our meetings and the swap meet, terrific lunches at our Fall Seminar, edible fuel for workers at the Design in Wood Show and refreshments for all sorts of special events. In addition to this largely behind the scene work Don and Mrs. Spangler have generously provided their home as a location for the directors holiday party, DIW planning meetings and other important business meetings. After Mark Fuller's untimely death, Don volunteered to take over the SDFWA presence at Old Tool Swap Meet events. Be sure to thank Don for all this work the next time you see him.

Doug Murphy took over the fledgling SDFWA website over ten years ago, added to it and continued to maintain it single handedly without much recognition during that period. Although we depend heavily on the website for communication month in and month out, the webmaster generally hears from members only when there is an omission, misprint or error of some sort. Now the website has been totally redesigned. Doug was instrumental in guiding us through a process that stretched over 14 months. He is still active in maintaining the DIW online volunteer website and other technical aspects. On behalf of the membership, many thanks, Doug.

Finally, I sincerely regret having to announce that Gary Anderson tendered his resignation from the position of Vice President on April 4th. Gary was a valuable member of the executive board. His contributions will be missed. The remaining board members will be meeting soon to fill the vacancy. Gary remains a member in good standing and we hope to have the benefit of his input in the future.

Dick Ugoretz, President, SDFWA

Did you ever wonder why there is a wide range of prices for carbide cutting tools? I ran across an informative article in Woodshop News magazine which will tell you all you ever wanted to know (and then some) about carbide. Here is a link to the article.

<http://www.woodshopnews.com/columns-blogs/cutting-edge/503469-carbide-cutters-arent-always-what-they-seem>

Thanks to Dick for providing the above info.

Design in Wood

Once again it is time for the 33rd Annual Design in Wood Exhibition. As in the past we strive to provide the most ideal venue for woodworkers to show their work and improve this exceptional International Competition of Fine Woodworking.

We have secured major commitments from our many corporate and local sponsors. Along with our co-Sponsor, the 22nd District Agricultural Association, we look forward to another successful Exhibition and Competition. Last year's attendance provided the opportunity for 1.5 million fairgoers to see our first class exhibit.

This year's theme is "FAB Fair", celebrating the British "invasion" and the people and sounds of the 60's.

American Woodworker Magazine will once again sponsor the "Best of Show" award as the top prize of $1,000. We will be giving over $21,000 in cash and merchandise awards.

The Design in Wood Fair Planning Committee meets the first Saturday of each month January through May 2014. The next meeting will be May 3, 2014, at Don Spangler's, 4372 Pocahontas Avenue, San Diego.

Now is the time for you to get busy on your entry for the competition which will run 24 days again this year from June 7 to July 6, 2014. The Design in Wood entry form for the 2014 competition is included in this newsletter and can be copied and mailed in. The entry form is also on www.sdfwa.org under Design in Wood 2014 in a pdf format for downloading and mailing in. You may also enter online at www.sdfair.com.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

The Design in Wood Exhibition at the Del Mar County Fair opens on June 7, 2014, and runs through July 6, 2014. In order to properly staff the exhibit, we desperately need more volunteers to walk the gallery floor and to help make chairs in the 19th Century workshop.

Absolutely no experience or special skills are needed for either of these positions. Whatever you need to know will be taught to you when you show up for your shift. There are several advantages to donating some of your time:

1. On the gallery floor you will have an opportunity to examine the entries, rather than just walk through quickly and glance at them. Fielding questions from the public could draw your attention to details that you might otherwise have overlooked. (Don't worry about questions to which you don't know the answers. You can always ask one of the staff members who will be nearby.)
2. Working in the chair shop allows you to work with hand tools that you might seldom use. (Don't worry if you don't know how because you will be given a short lesson and you will look like an expert to the public.)
3. For each shift you will receive two fair tickets. Sign up for more than one shift and you might collect enough tickets for you, your family, and your friends and neighbors. You will have to use one (1) ticket for yourself in order to enter the fairgrounds each time you come for your shift.
4. Sign up for closing shifts on the gallery floor and receive four (4) tickets per shift.
5. Volunteers can use an "employees only" gate and avoid the long lines at the main gate. Early entry to the fair allows you to visit some exhibits that are not yet open to the public.

HERE ARE THE EASIEST WAYS TO VOLUNTEER:

Sign up online: Go to www.sdfwa.org and under Design in Wood click on: (see sample on the next page)

1. Volunteer Schedule to see what shifts are available
2. To sign up, click on Volunteer Sign-Up and, using your membership number and email address, log in and complete your sign-up

Note: This method of sign-up will be available only until 5:00pm on May 9, 2014. After that time volunteering must be done by contacting Eric Lunde at either:

Phone at 858-487-7644
Email at: eric.lunde@cox.net

Sign up in Person: You can also volunteer by signing up at the General Meetings. Bring your calendar to the meeting so you can coordinate your schedule.

Thank you in advance for helping your Association. See you at the Fair!

Magazine Program

After assuming responsibility for the Magazine Program in January, it became readily apparent that members are very active in supporting this program. To support the on-going sales efforts, the Magazine Program relies on the membership for both purchases and the generous donations of used books and magazines that support continued operations. A big “Thank You” to all of the members that have contributed books and magazines to support this program. Recycling your old books and magazines is also a great way to “Go Green” and keep this material out of the local land fills while supporting the goals of the SDFWA. Please remember to drop off any unwanted woodworking related books and magazines at the next meeting. Your donations are sincerely appreciated!

Mike Switalski Magazine/Book Sales Chairman

Notes from the Webmaster

The launch of the new website has gone fairly well, and I hope it is a continuing benefit to all SDFWA members. We are still updating and adding information every week – the pages for upcoming Events and Wants and Disposals should reflect the most up-to-date information available.

If you want to be listed on the SDFWA Craftsman List, send an email to CraftsmanList@sdfwa.org or if you want to display your woodworking photos in our Member Woodworking Gallery, follow the instructions at <http://www.sdfwa.org/photo-gallery-instructions/>.

Thanks to all the Committee Chairs for sending me updates – the process is starting to work pretty smoothly. One thing I've updated recently is the Web Links page – sites that are gone were removed, and I've started to add links from my collection, with a notable new category being YouTube videos. This is an area that everyone can both help with and benefit from. If you would like to share favorite websites that aren't listed, please send:

- 1) A site name
- 2) A URL or web address
- 3) A short (10-15 word) description of the site
- 4) The category it belongs in (or a new category)

Example

- 1) Maple Leaf Hardwoods
- 2) www.curlymaple.com
- 3) The BEST Curly Maple, Cherry, Oak. Will ship.
- 4) Wood, Paints, Stains, etc.
