Chance Coalter: www.chancecoalter.com/ will give a presentation of his work and how he uses stack lamination to build up the complex shapes that he then sculpts into furniture. Chance is a teacher at Palomar and started working for Brett Hesser. His pieces are very modern and have bold sculpted shapes. His entry table won 1st place in contemporary furniture last year in the Design in Wood Show.

Hope to see you there, Dell Cover

April Shop Tour: Bus Trip to Gamble House and Mission Inn

Dale Stauffer, Shop Tours Chairman

SDFWA will be hosting a spring bus trip for members, visiting the impressive Gamble House in Pasadena and the historic Mission Inn in Riverside.

There will be two buses leaving San Diego between 7:00 and 7:40am: one from Westfield North County (Escondido) and one from Mission Valley. These are tour buses with bathrooms. The departure times are staggered to coincide with the morning Gamble House tours. Following, we will have lunch at a nearby Souplantation; then, on to the afternoon tours at the Mission Inn. We should be returning to San Diego around 5 pm.

The cost for this tour will be $65 per person - this includes both morning and afternoon tours, and lunch. You will need to register in advance using the on-line sign-up below, or by contacting Dale Stauffer by email at ddstauffer77@gmail.com, or telephone at (619) 840-5684. Please indicate how many people are going in your group and which location you will depart from. We need to get an accurate count of who wants to go. Make payment on-line at time of registration (link below).

President's Message

April, 2016

Bernie Burke,
President SDFWA

Happy Spring to one and all. We are really busy at the San Diego Fine Woodworkers Association and I hope you are participating in those activities that interest you, in addition to your own woodworking projects. We are celebrating our 35th year of existence this year and I am really proud of how far we have come. I doubt that when Lynn Rybarczyk was starting up the organization he contemplated a dynamic group numbering over 1,000 who maintain not only the Design In Wood show at the fair but all our other activities; but then again, knowing Lynn, he probably did expect just that. Thanks to all of you for making this success possible. Mike Davis has arranged for Ed Gladney and me to appear on a community TV show this month to discuss the 35 year history of our organization and the Design In Wood event.

Our member shop project is off to a very dynamic start. Gary Anderson reports that over $20,000 has been raised to date. That is just a marvelous start, but we have so much further to go; so please look at what you can do. We need to raise quite a bit more money to get the doors open, and in the spirit of not betting the farm on this, we won't go forward until we have the money in hand to do so. I know many of you plan to make a contribution and I encourage you to do so soon. I made my contribution, as have Gary and several others. Also, Lynn Rybarczyk recently made a trip to Portland, at his own expense, to explore how their member shop is working and the steps it took to get it up and running. We are all looking forward to his input on the project.

In March, we toured the shop of Brett Hesser in San Diego and now Dale Stauffer has arranged for an out-of-town tour. Our first bus tour in quite a while will take place on the 23rd of April. We will visit the Gamble House in Pasadena, have lunch, then tour the Mission Inn in Riverside on the way home. My excitement about going on this was increased last night when I saw a TV show on PBS about 10 homes that changed America; the Gamble House was one of them. The number of folks that can be accommodated is fixed at 50 for each of the two buses, so please don't dally in getting signed up. It's only $65, including the lunch, and all other costs.

Russ Fillbeck drew quite a crowd to our March general membership meeting where he entertained us with tales of his woodworking with President Jimmy Carter. Isn't it pleasing to see how woodworking can provide such fulfillment to the lives of folks from all walks of life? This month we will have Chance Coalter, who will give a presentation of his work, and how he uses stack lamination to build up complex shapes. He teaches at Palomar and won first place in contemporary furniture last year at the DIW show.

The Southern California Chapter of the Society of Period Furniture Makers is having a spring seminar on April 29, 30 and May 1 at Cerritos College with Alfred "Alf" Sharp whose subject will be the Philadelphia pie crust tea table. If you wish to go or need more information, just email Bob Stevenson at bobscww@cox.net.

Have you signed up yet to be a floor walker at the Design in Wood show in June? In addition to the numerous floor walkers needed for the show, we always can use help with set up and folks to work in the shop. You can pick a time and register on our website. Don't forget, you get free tickets for each session you work. The show is moving along well in the organizational stage, but there is still time to get your project entered; set-up is scheduled for mid-May. Please see Ed Gladney's article and our website to get up-to-date on developments and the schedule. I know this will be the best ever, so please plan to help out. Speaking of Ed, he now has scheduled the Fall Seminar speaker and site so we can start the countdown to that grand event. Check the website for developments on the schedule and when you can sign up. The speaker will be Jeff Miller, who will shift the show somewhat in the direction of contemporary work.

Design In Wood

DIW Coordinator

2016 DESIGN IN WOOD EXHIBITION CALLING ALL WOODWORKERS TIME TO GET YOUR ENTRIES IN!

This is our 35th year and we want to make it our best year ever! We have over $20,000 in cash and merchandise with 25 entry classes. Each class awards 1st through 4th place, plus Honorable Mentions. In addition, there are over 30 possible donated awards from 16 separate donors. This year there are more chances of winning an award than ever before. So get working on your winning entry. Of course, just by entering, your work will be on display to over one million fairgoers that visit our exhibit each year. Again this year, we hope to improve this exceptional international competition of fine woodworking. We have secured major commitments from our many corporate and local sponsors. Our co-sponsor, the 22nd Agricultural District, also looks forward to our successful exhibition

This year's theme is Mad About the Fair. The Fair will be turned into a grand-scale tea party featuring the renowned Lewis Carroll classic, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, fused with influences from steampunk, cosplay, great literature and whacky machinery. Your DIW staff and demonstrators have been busy planning this year's fair. Some wonderful cutouts have been made and painted by Evie Aring which we will hang from the ceiling.

Fine Woodworking Magazine returns as sponsor of the "Best of Show" award with a $1,000 cash award. Not to be outdone, Popular Woodworking also has a $1,000 award consisting of $500 cash and $500 in merchandise. All entry classes and awards are listed in our Information Brochure online at www.SDFWA.org. To enter go to http://www.sdfair.com/index.php?fuseaction=exhibits.design\_in\_wood. There you will find step by step entry instructions as well as detailed local and state rules for entry. Just remember that student work or work done under a teacher's supervision is not eligible.

There is plenty of computer help available for those that need it to enter. The fair entry office personnel are available to help with entering online. They can be reached at 858-755-1161 ext. 2452. This includes help with digital photography, if needed.

Entry Deadline: Fri, April 29, 2016

Exhibit Delivery Date: Thursday, May 26, 2016, noon to 8:00pm

Exhibit Awards Ceremony: Thursday, June 2, 2016, 7:00pm

WE NEED YOUR HELP

The Design in Wood Exhibition opens on June 3, 2016, and runs through July 4, 2016. In order to properly staff the exhibit, we desperately need more volunteers to walk the gallery floor and to help make chairs in the 19th Century workshop. Absolutely no experience or special skills are needed for either of these positions. Whatever you need to know will be taught to you when you show up for your shift. There are several advantages to donating some of your time:

1. On the gallery floor you will have an opportunity to examine the entries, rather than just walk through quickly and glance at them. Fielding questions from the public could draw your attention to details that you might otherwise have overlooked. (Don't worry about questions to which you don't know the answers. You can always ask one of the staff members who will be nearby).
2. Working in the chair shop allows you to work with hand tools that you might seldom use. (Don't worry if you don't know how, because you will be given a short lesson, and you will look like an expert to the public.)
3. For each shift, you will receive two fair tickets. Sign up for more than one shift and you might collect enough tickets for you, your family, your friends and neighbors. You will have to use one (1) ticket for yourself in order to enter the fairgrounds each time you come for your shift.
4. Sign up for closing shifts on the gallery floor and receive four (4) tickets per shift.
5. Volunteers can use an "employees only" gate and avoid the long lines at the main gate. Early entry to the fair allows you to visit some exhibits that are not yet open to the public.

HERE ARE THE EASIEST WAYS TO VOLUNTEER:

Sign up online: Go to www.sdfwa.org and under Design in Wood click on Volunteer Schedule to see what shifts are available. To volunteer for a shift, click on Volunteer Sign-Up. Then use your membership number and email address; log in and complete your sign-up. Note: This method of sign-up will be available only until 5:00pm on May 1, 2016. After that time, volunteering must be done by emailing Doug Murphy at dw-murphy@cox.net or phone (619) 441-9665.

Sign up in Person: You can also volunteer by signing up at the General Meetings. Bring your calendar to the meeting, so you can coordinate your schedule.

Thank you in advance for helping your Association. See you at the Fair!

This is your exhibit, SDFWA. Let's make it the VERY BEST.

Member Shop Project

Gary Anderson, Member Shop Chairman

The fundraising phase of our Member Shop Project is now in full swing. At the March General Meeting, Members stepped up to contribute over $20,000 in one night!

This fundraising is a critical part of our plan. Member contributions are essential to making this plan work. If you have not already contributed, I sincerely hope you'll do your part to make this happen.

To make it easier, we have set up a "Member Shop" page on our SDFWA Website. Just click on the Member Shop option under the "Membership" tab. You can contribute by mailing in a donation, or pay by Credit Card (click on the "Donation Form" text). If you click on the "Donate" button, the credit card option will open up for you. You can make a one-time donation or set up automatic monthly charges to your card.

On the Member Shop page, you'll also see the names of those members who have joined the "Founders Group" by making a donation of $250 or more. A special thank you goes out to those individuals! You've provided our efforts with a huge shot in the arm and set a motivating example for the rest of our Members.

Details on the "Founders Group" can be found on the "Donation Form." But if you have any questions or a problem with any of this, I hope you'll email me or give me a call. I want to make sure you have all the information you need.

The other option you have is to bring your check or credit card to the April General Meeting. Jeff, Pete and I will be manning a table at the back of the room where you can turn in your contribution.

Remember, contributions to a 501(C) (3) like us are considered to be tax deductible; depending upon your tax status. And 100% of what you give us will go to the Member Shop!

Donations of some significant pieces of equipment have caused us to move towards securing a storage unit. This will allow us to accumulate what we'll need while reducing the amount of money we'll need to raise.

Additional fundraising efforts are in the works including a possible "Go Fund Me" campaign headed up by Alan Lewis. If that comes together, we're going to need Members to help us make toys and other items to support that effort.

Lots going on! It's getting exciting! I'll have all the latest for you at the April General Meeting. Don't forget....bring money!

Appreciatively yours,

Gary Anderson pinz711@aol.com (619) 670-1181

Magazine Program

Mike Switalski, Magazine Program Chairman
Magazine Program Update

A big "Thank You!" to former members, Lynn and David Moon, for their three boxes of donated woodworking magazines. Additional donations were made by Steve Rogers, Duane Close, Larry Wilson, Milton Kromydas, Bob McKeon, Hans Von Nostitz and Mike Davis. Thank you for your contributions and continued support of the Magazine Program!

Due to the large number and variety of donations during the March meeting, a limited number of new magazine titles will be available for sale at the April membership meeting:

- American Woodturner
- Boatbuilder (Journal of Boat Design and Construction)
- Chips Chats (The National Wood Carvers Association)
- Wood Carving Illustrated

We also acquired a large number of the very popular ShopNotes magazine!

All CDs and VHS Tapes that were available for sale were sold during the March membership meeting. Thank you!

Notes from the Webmaster

Jeff Bratt, Webmaster
Searching the SDFWA Website

A couple of things have quietly upgraded your ability to find things on the SDFWA website. One is that the built-in search functions now scans the information associated with the photographs in the Design in Wood award gallery. For example, if you use the built-in search box to look for Bill Churchill, you can now find all the photos listed from his entries in Design in Wood.

The other enhancement actually comes from Google and has been in place for some time, but I recently discovered how it helps searching our site. The previously mentioned site search box looks through everything on the site, including the PDF files in our newsletter archive. However, I had recently added other PDF files from previous year's Design in Wood catalogs which were scanned images of the printed versions of the catalog. Such images are generally not searchable. I discovered that Google started automatically performing text recognition conversions on certain document types, including PDF files. So if you use Google to search the SDFWA site, it will now locate exhibitor names from the entire entry catalog (of the past years I have posted), not just the first-place award winners that we photograph.

These results will show up in any relevant Google search, but there are ways to tell Google to only search the SDFWA site. You can use the Google advanced search https://www.google.com/advanced\_search and fill in the site or domain box, or simply add the tag - site: sdfwa.org - to any Google search. For example a Google search for - Paul Schurch site:sdfwa.org - will return results not only from the Craftsman List and SDFWA newsletters mentioning his presentations and Fall Seminar, but also from the 2014 and 2011 Design in Wood Exhibition catalogs.

This will encourage me to add even more Design in Wood Exhibition catalogs for past years, and obtain copies of older SDFWA newsletters, which I understand were also scanned. Hopefully the scan quality is good enough to allow accurate character recognition – something I made sure of when scanning the Design in Wood Exhibition catalogs.

Report on the Brett Hesser Tour

Photos by Lou Adzima, Association Historian, Treasurer
Article by Adrian Larson, Editor

On Saturday morning March 9th, we were privileged to tour Brett Hesser's shop. We had fair weather, and the attendance was large. Brett's woodworking credentials go back a long time. As a young man, he attended Leeds Design Workshops, Easthampton, Mass., and was their youngest to graduate in 1988. This institution, opened in 1977 by David Powell and John Tierney, taught furniture making. Powell was trained in the Edward Barnsley workshop in England, famous for its connection to William Morris and the arts and crafts style, and studied under the likes of David Pye while at the Royal College of Art. Follow the links for information on these fascinating individuals, the early days of the arts and crafts movement, and its march into the 20th century. For information on the Leeds Design Workshop, the men who founded it, and its brief history go to: <http://www.finewoodworking.com/item/108424/are-you-a-leeds-alum#ixzz44bavoWNE>.

Brett moved to San Diego at twenty years of age, and entered the woodworking field. In 1993, he opened his own shop, Hesser Handcrafted. Over the following years, he changed locations a couple of times; moving into his present shop one year ago. The new shop is both larger and dedicated to a new business model: custom veneering. Although his love for handcrafting furniture is undiminished, and he still practices it, his main business now comes from building veneer panels for clients.

This began in 2004, when his ability to create his own veneer panels attracted the attention of other craftsmen. They liked his work and asked him to build panels for them. This proved lucrative and he was happy for the work. His workload increased until he needed much more space; the new shop is 16,000 square feet and has six employees. With space for twenty employees, the shop is uncrowded with craftsmen, but packed with large, expensive specialty machines for creating veneer panels. There are thousands upon thousands of square feet of veneer in every variety of exotic wood you are ever likely to find. Brett's advice to his clients is to always use highly figured exotic wood. The expense of the pieces he creates is such that he sees no reason for using plain figured wood on a project.

Brett explained the uses of his machines and demonstrated quite a few of them. While few, if any of us, will ever own something as large and expensive, Brett also spoke of how the small shop does the work with hand tools. He also discussed how to create the illusion of solid wood with veneer, such as solid wood edges, or veneering over curved mdf. He passed around samples of this technique which were eye opening, while encouraging us to give a lot of thought to achieving interesting results in our own work. Of course, carving can't be done on a veneer product, but most other design effects can be with enough effort.

Brett also mentioned when and why he uses mdf, particle board, or plywood for the core of his panels. Factors range from fire codes, screw holding ability, weight, and of course, what the client specifies. Given his own choice, he opts for mdf due to its flatness, Doorbond 200 adhesive for its effectiveness, and Sherwin Williams conversion varnish for its sprayability and long life. Trial and error have taught him these, and many other lessons, over a lifetime of woodworking. That said, he never stops learning new things in his field.

For a peek at some of Brett's work, go to his website: www.hesserhandcrafted.com and explore. He is presently working on the Wilshire Grand Hotel in LA, which will be the tallest building on the west coast, the Marriot in downtown San Diego, and a custom office for a client.
