January Program

Dust Collection Principles and Practices

Are you up to your eyeballs in dust and shavings in your shop? Is the layer of dust in your shop so thick that you cannot discern one piece of equipment from another? Are you in danger of being banished from the house because of the wood dust you are constantly tracking all over the place? Have you been thinking about installing or updating your dust collection system? Well then the presentation at January's meeting is right up your alley. A properly designed and installed dust collection system can make woodworking much safer and more enjoyable. For most people though, the design and installation of a dust collection system is a mystifying and daunting task. Where do you start? How will you know if, after investing serious money, time and effort, if it will work the way you want and hope it will?

Theron Spray is an engineer for a large aerospace company. His responsibilities include designing and managing the installation of virtually any form of facility improvement that can be dreamt up. He has been involved in projects from basic office building improvements to complex tooling design and set ups for large aircraft. His breadth of knowledge is truly impressive. Theron has designed and installed complex dust collection systems that are state of the art in their function and efficiency. He will discuss the steps it takes to determine which dust collection is the right one for a given application, talk about the mechanics of dust collection and then provide some examples of good and not so good design and installation of the various systems available. He will discuss the pros and cons of the various systems available on the market today and talk about the many accessories that make a good dust collection great. If you want some practical, no nonsense information on everything to do with minimizing dust in your workshop, you won't want to miss the program we have arranged for you this month.

Look forward to seeing you at the meeting!

From the President...

Happy New Year!! After two years as Programs Chairperson, it is my honor and privilege to be elected and serve as your president for 2008. I want to thank Ed Gladney and Tom Henderson for many years of service to the organization as president and vice president. Ed has assumed the position of President Emeritus on the board and Tom has retired from club activities. Two board members continued in their positions; Doug Parker as Treasurer and Rhoda Keegan as Secretary. Robert Threm was elected vice president and previously held the Shop Tours Chairperson position. These positions take a tremendous amount of time and effort, as do all the leadership positions in our organization, and I look forward to a year of fun, educational and interesting activities of all things related to woodworking interacting with these individuals and the many active chairpersons/directors who make up the leadership of the San Diego Fine Woodworkers Association.

Remember it is time to renew your membership. You need your new membership card to continue receiving discounts and services from our local sponsors. You can get your membership renewal form in this newsletter, on line at <http://sdfwa.org/memberapp.htm> or pick one up at any of our sponsor's stores.

There was a tremendous turnout at the last meeting of 2007 where Mike Jackofsky did a fantastic turning demonstration on the hollow vessel technique for which he is so well known. Mike turned a round bottom bowl and a small hollow vessel from live oak while regaling us with stories and antidotes of his experiences as a woodturner. He makes it look so darn easy!!! As a special bonus during the January meeting, attendees will be eligible to participate in a free drawing to win one of the two signed pieces Mike turned during the demo.

We have some wood and woodworking supplies that have been donated to the club over the years. We use much of the donated wood for the toy program, but occasionally we have odds and ends that are not utilized by the toy program. The need to do some house cleaning to make room for other items we need to store means that you have a chance to pick up some wood and other items for very reasonable prices. All money collected will go into the club's general fund to support the club's activities. We will have small bundles/boxes of wood, dowels, molding and other similar items for sale to members. Look for us at the meeting hall parking lot weather permitting. Bring ones and fives to minimize the effort of making change. Yet another good reason to attend the SDFWA meeting!!

There are a couple of club activities coming up about which you should be aware. A shop tour at Brian Brown's will be on February 9th. Chuck Anderson will be doing a router workshop at his home on February 16th. See details later in this newsletter.

A lot of good input was received from members who completed an impromptu survey during the November meeting on those subjects you would like more information presented or made available. Many of you indicated an interest in volunteering in our wonderful organization. The members of the board will be contacting you shortly to determine what will be of most interest and most fulfilling for you as a volunteer. We have opportunities that are as simple or as involved as you want to be. Our organization runs strictly on volunteerism and is incredibly successful given the tremendous size of SDFWA. I have enjoyed volunteering for a number of years now and have made new friends and enjoyed experiences I might have otherwise not had the opportunity to do so. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact me or any member of the board. I promise volunteering for SDFWA will be a rewarding and satisfying experience.

Design in Wood Show planning is underway. The fair's theme this year is "Summer of Sports". The planning meetings are held at 9:30 AM on the first Saturday of each month. We ply you with donuts, coffee and camaraderie to keep you revved up and in exchange we ask for your ideas and input to make each DIW show better than the last. Please see Bob Stevenson's write up later in this newsletter for more information.

Again, I am looking forward to a busy and exciting year with San Diego Fine Woodworking Association. I want to take an opportunity to thank all the directors, chairpersons, board members and volunteers past and present who have contributed and continue to contribute. I look forward to working with you and continuing in the tradition of providing information, education, contributions to the community and membership and camaraderie. See you at the January Meeting!

SHOP TOUR

WORK SHOP OF BRIAN K. BROWN SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH, 9AM

I hope everyone had a safe and wonderful holiday season. To ring in the New Year we will be touring the shop of Brian K. Brown

You may have seen some of Brian's work on the brag table at several of the general meetings. Now is your chance to see where he does all the work. He has a complete line of Jet machinery and the walls are covered with antique woodworking tools. Brian really enjoys building period furniture and is currently working on an 18th century secretary with bookcase and a "ton" of detail including hand cut dovetails.

Brian started working with wood like a lot of us – in his high school woodshop. Then, following in his fathers and older brothers footsteps, worked as a union sheet metal worker for 26 years. Now, Brian has married his skills from both sheet metal and woodworking and well..... You've seen his beautiful work.

So come out and join us at Brian's shop for a morning of good conversation, camaraderie and all the donuts and coffee you can handle.

I hope to see you there.

Brians shop is located at,

13257 Wanesta Drive
Poway, CA 92064

WoodWorks Ontario is canceled this year

From: Jonathan Frank
To: Gladney@san.rr.com
Subject: WoodWorks Ontario

WoodWorks Ontario is canceled this year.

Our largest exhibitor had 28 booths each year, bringing Bosch, PC, Jet and many other lines to the show. Each year he received co-op dollars from manufactures, but this year none were kicking in- it's been a very off year in woodworking. So, our largest vendor was scaling down to 8 booths and numerous other vendors were doing the same. The show would have been downsized by at least 50%.

When I brought the first American Woodworker show to Ontario, it had just opened and the airport was still a backwater runway. That first show had 75 vendors and 10,000 people attended. Since then, Ontario grew wildly, the airport was transformed, but the show had fewer exhibitors each year and less attendees. It's symptomatic of a combination of factors encompassing a broad mix.

The mission of the first AW show and our WoodWorks shows has been the same- produce quality events that offers woodworkers more than a commercial experience. Through the years, we've brought many of the best professional woodworkers to teach and demonstrate their skills. While that has been our agenda, we also know there are a lot of woodworkers who only care about the commercial side of the show. With such a small show this year, many of those people would have been very disappointed in the quality of the show.

Part of the problem with 'shows' these days is that there are too many poor quality shows. We didn't want to be added to that list, so we canceled. The hall was paid for, we hired numerous experts and we had every intention of ending our 6th season in Ontario as we have every year. But, it just didn't make sense.

We have a show next week in MA that will be our last show this season. After that, we'll re-evaluate next year and begin locking in our venues and dates. If Ontario makes sense next year, we'll return. A lot will depend on the community of woodworkers, which includes the vendors and woodworkers like you and your club members.

Thanks for you support over the years, it's been our pleasure to work with you at the show and to meet so many nice club members.

Jonathan

On Behalf SAY San Diego's Start Smart Program, I want to thank your organization for your most recent donation to our program. By now you know how much our families and classrooms love the wooden playthings you provide.

Smart Start offers a series of parent-child interactive classes that teach parents about child development and how to prepare their children for kindergarten. Crafts and other hands-on activities are central to what we do, and the items your organization donates are in all our classrooms every time the families meet. We also send some of the items home when the children graduate from Start Smart.

Our educators and families know RIGHT AWAY when items come from the Woodworkers -- there is no quality like you folks provide! I wish you could see the response from our teachers and parents. We always share what you give us with our "sister" program -- Our Kids Count -- that specializes in services for military families in Murphy Canyon.

Thank you very much for continuing to support the work of SAY San Diego We are proud to be an ongoing recipient of your fine quality workmanship and appreciate so much what you do for us. We hope to be collaborative partners for many years to come!

Your used woodworking magazines & books are needed!

Please bring your used woodworking magazines & books to our club meetings and donate them to the Toy Program. Your Toy Program resells them and raises funds to buy wheels and paint. Last month we raised $90 for a years total of $437. Thank you.

Roger Solheid, Toy Program Chairman

Toy Sale

The Toy Program sold approximately 2% of the toys made by volunteers during 2007. The sale, which was held in December at the Mingei Museum Store in Balboa Park, produced a gross profit of $3,133. The net income to the Association, after expenses and commissions, was $1690.61. We thank all the members who made toys for this sale.

It is unclear at this writing whether the Toy Program will continue to sell toys in 2008. The sale held in December was the first time the Program has sold any toys and was viewed as an experiment to learn what would sell and whether the volunteers who make the toys would support the effort. Prior to 2007, all toys produced were donated to local charities.

At their meeting in January, the SDFWA Board of Directors asked the Toy Program to survey it's volunteers to determine their interest and willingness to continue selling a limited number of toys in the future to help defray the costs of the Program. One justification for the sale is that the Association currently provides approximately $3,000 per year to cover the expenses associated with making the toys that are donated to charities. If sales are to continue, it has been suggested that a limit be placed on the number of toys made available for sale, such as 10% of the total production, in order to maintain the primary emphasis of the program.

For anyone interested in purchasing a toy, the Mingei Museum has a few left at their Escondido and Balboa Park stores.

For questions or information about the sale of toys, contact Charlie Pinkus at 619-435-6334.

What's New at Frost Hardwood Lumber Company

I just wanted to update the SDFWW Association of new trends in woods as well as new products coming into the pipeline.

I'm sure everyone is aware of the growing environmental movement and with that Frost Hardwood is adding products to address your concerns.

In the hardwood arena, we have plantation grown Lyptus and Euro Beech products that carry certifications by the growers/manufacturers of being sustainable long term substitutes for other hard to get woods. Lyptus is a medium brown/pink which can be a substitute for mahogany/teak but is interior use only. European steamed Beech can substitute Alder and generally can be found in clearer boards, longer lengths and wider widths than Alder. Our new Beech is stocked with a straight line on both edges for minimal waste. Since it is graded after drying and ripping it is relatively knot free

In the panel arena, we have Pure Bond hardwood plywood from Columbia Forest Products which has no added formaldehyde to improve indoor air quality that complies with the US Green Building Councils (LEED) standards and CARB (California Air Resources Board). We also carry melamine, particleboard (Skyblend® from Roseburg) and MDF (Arries from Sierra Pine) that also have no added formaldehyde glue and will meet these same.

There are some other products lines becoming very popular such as the White River Molding products (www.mouldings.com). We carry a lot of the cabinet adornments and special order a lot of the moldings due to the extensive product line they offer.

The staff at Frost Hardwood Lumber wants to wish you and the Association all the best in the New Year and we appreciate your continued support!

James M Frost, Frost Hardwood Lumber Co
